

GIFT PROPOSAL

Presented to: Susie Adams

INTRODUCTION 🐾

Susie,

First and foremost, thank you for all you have done and continue to do in support of Clemson Athletics and Tiger student-athletes. Your commitment to Clemson has been an integral piece of building our programs and moving them forward, and we are grateful for your dedication.

As we continue to innovate and invest in our programs, we have lofty goals ahead of us to provide the best possible opportunities for current and future student-athletes as they pursue their goals in competition and prepare for sustained success beyond their time on campus. The generosity of our alumni and fans drives this mission forward year after year.

We are excited to share more with you about the opportunity to make an impact on Clemson Athletics through unique developmental programming, knowing that for generations to come student-athletes who spend time in these programs could be inspired by your generosity. We are grateful to have your support and for your consideration of this gift.

YOUR IMPACT 🐾

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT FUND FOR FEMALE STUDENT-ATHLETES

Investments in a Professional Development Fund for Female Student-Athletes would create a process for student-athletes to receive funding for developmental opportunities, including but not limited to: internships, professional workshops, conferences, and conventions. This fund would allow for further utilization of the Clemson and POWER networks to create more internship, job shadowing, and leadership development programming for female student-athletes. Resources from this fund would be available to all Clemson female student-athletes, with the opportunity to apply and be selected for the various opportunities. With a goal to identify and provide 5-10 opportunities annually, selected student-athletes must be in alignment regarding their career goals and leadership passions. Upon completion of each opportunity, the selected student-athlete will provide a recap and/or presentation of the impact of their experience. Each opportunity will be approved and coordinated through Student-Athlete Development.

POWER: WOMEN'S LEADERSHIP ACADEMY SUMMIT EXPANSION

The POWER Women's Leadership Summit is the student-led culmination of each cohort's developmental programming, giving the student-athlete participants the chance to lead their peers and interact with additional constituents within the Clemson community. The increased investment in programming for the Leadership Summit would provide the opportunity to invite external guest speakers and facilitators for presentations, elevate the Summit to a professional conference-level feel, expand the Summit's reach at a larger venue, potential to expand the Summit to a two-day event, and also potential to invite other ACC and regional schools to attend. The goal is to empower each student-athlete participant in their ability to lead conversations and professional development while interacting with some of the best brands and brightest leaders, in addition to elevating their skillsets for their careers.

AN INVITATION TO INVEST

As we continue to position our student-athletes with the best resources and programming available, we are seeking your support to expand the reach of POWER: Women's Leadership Academy, maintain Clemson's status as the standard for student-athlete development with particular emphasis on women empowerment, and provide more professional development opportunities for all student-athletes.
